Council Openings

The Village of Covington has an opening for a Council Member to fill the unexpired term of Marc Basye. The remainder of this term will be 2 years expiring December 31, 2015. Anyone interested in serving on the Covington Council should submit a resume to the Government Center by January 13, 2013.

Ohio EPA Grant Allows Village to Purchase New Recycling Toters

Full and half size recycling toters are now available to Covington residents at no additional charge. If you currently use two or more recycling tubs and would like to have a new recycling totter instead of your current tubs, please contact the Government Center to request one.

Automatic Utility Account Payments

You now have the option to pay your monthly utility bill automatically through a deduction from your checking account. If you would like to sign up for the automatic utility payment service, please contact the Government Center to request the application form. This form is also available on the Village website @ www.covington-oh.gov

Water Meter Replacements

The Village will be replacing water meters on Regency Court and Mote Drive. If you live in this area and your water meter has not yet been replaced, please contact the Village office to schedule the replacement of your meter.
